NATURE OF THE CONTRACT:

1. The said contract pertains to all types of maintenance of UPS systems and Batteries installed at our branches / offices. Vendors to note that the batteries attached to the UPS should also be maintained. Branch must be operational at any cost by providing standby UPS. If UPS/Batteries are under warranty, the Vendor have to provide standby UPS/Batteries and lodge a call with respective Vendor/Supplier. Minimum one visit in each quarter has to be made to each branch for preventive maintenance for water supply to the batteries and proper cleaning of the battery heads to avoid rusting. Every quarter, Vendor need to provide AMC report along with the digital photograph of the site under maintenance.

2. The tentative list of branches where these UPS/batteries are presently installed in our branches along with capacity of the UPS with Batteries are enclosed as per Annexure I.

3. The branch wise list of UPS and Batteries provided with this tender document is tentative and vendor should deploy their service engineers to all the branches of our zone as per details provided in Annexure-I to list out all the available UPS and Batteries and any additions/deletions/modifications shall be intimated to us immediately so that the master data of all the branches can be properly updated at our end and share the same with the vendor to avoid issues like UPS and Batteries mismatch/ UPS and Batteries not found/ UPS and Batteries not in use etc.

4. The location, capacity and the make of the UPSs may change/vary. Bank may cut down number of UPS /Batteries from the above list. With mutual consent Bank may add to the above list of UPS and Batteries. Bank reserves the right to shift any of the UPS to any other place/branch as per the requirement of the Bank during the contract time and the Vendors should provide continued maintenance service irrespective of these changes at the same agreed rates. Initially the maintenance contract will be for 1 year which may be renewed further.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE CONTRACT: The broad terms and conditions of the said Annual Maintenance Contract are as under.

1. AMC pertains to the maintenance of the UPS systems & Batteries and providing spares required for repairs. Spare parts include all parts that find part of the UPS system and will not include all external electrical cables, batteries, power transformers etc.. The Vendors, at their own cost, will be responsible for supply of all parts that may need replacement and for replacement of parts that are defective in the UPS equipment. The Vendors may take back the replaced parts if the new parts are of equal quality and value in comparison with the old parts with a separate consent of the Bank. If UPS/Batteries are under warranty, the Vendor have to provide standby UPS/Batteries and lodge a call with respective Vendor/Supplier.

2. It is the responsibility and obligation of the vendor to provide immediate services in case of UPS breakdowns. The branches/offices of the Bank reserve the right to get the UPS repaired under the AMC by outside parties, if the Vendor fails to provide services within one day (24 hours) of complaint. The Bank may claim compensation for this from the Vendors. The Vendor is liable to provide continued services even if the Bank uses third parties for repair work of the UPSs mentioned under the AMC. If any of the UPS under the contract is unattended for a period of more than two days after receiving complaint (telephonic call or written) by the Vendor a sum of Rs. 500.00 per day is liable to be deducted from the Vendor's AMC amount.

3. All the maintenance services shall be provided within the AMC amount agreed upon at the time of awarding AMC. The Vendor shall provide stand by UPS facility in case of delay in repair to the existing UPS systems. The Vendor shall always try to repair the UPS at the installed site only. In extreme cases only they are allowed to shift outside for repairs. Vendor shall be responsible and bear all the costs involving in shifting of UPS in case repairing requires shifting of the UPSs to other places. Where the Vendor is required to transport the said UPSs to any destination (branches and offices of Bank of India, repairing shop and to the place of the Vendor for repair), all costs including insurance, storage and transportation and related costs including damages shall be borne/arranged by the Vendor and all these costs are deemed to be included in the AMC price/amount. If immediate rectification/repair cannot be done, Vendor should provide stand by UPS system before shifting the UPS system from the branch.

4. The location as well as the make of the UPS may change/vary. Bank reserves the right to shift any of the UPSs to any other place as per the requirement of the Bank during the contract time and the Vendors should provide continued maintenance service irrespective of these changes. With mutual consent Bank may add to the above list of UPS if the service provided is satisfactory.

5. The Vendors shall not assign in whole or part, its obligations to perform under the Contract, except with the Bank's prior written consent.

6. Selected vendor should always station minimum 4 spare UPS systems as stand by support in the Zone.

7. Minimum one visit has to be made to each branch in each quarter for preventive maintenance for water supply to the batteries and proper cleaning of the battery heads to avoid rusting. Every quarter, Vendor need to provide AMC report along with the digital photograph of the site under maintenance. Annual Maintenance Contract Amount shall be payable in equal quarterly installments after the completion of the respective quarter upon demand from the Vendor along with the report for each branch as mentioned above.

8. At the termination of the Contract, the Vendor shall submit written reports from each branch that the UPSs under the AMC are in working, usable and satisfactory condition before claiming payment of AMC amount.

9. The agreed upon AMC Amount at the time of awarding AMC to the selected Vendors, shall be firm and fixed and not subject to adjustment during performance of the Contract and during Contract period irrespective of reasons whatsoever, including exchange rate fluctuations and/ or due to any type of escalations in prices. The contracted AMC amount is payable to the Vendor for the full and proper performance of the contractual obligations. No escalation in AMC amount (due to increase in costs expenses etc.) is allowed. Vendors should bear the sole responsibility in this regard. The Bidders/Vendors are requested to quote the amount which is exclusive of all taxes. Specify the taxes applicable separately in table provided in FORM- 1. No other Taxes, Expenses and Charges are payable. Tender shall be finalized on the basis of amount quoted exclusive of taxes.

10. The Vendor/Supplier cannot award sub-contracts to others under the said AMC. If at all the situation warrants, the Supplier/Vendor shall notify the Bank in writing of all subcontracts awarded under the Contract. Such notification shall not relieve the Supplier/Vendor from any liability and/ or obligation under the AMC. Sub-contract shall only be for bought-out items and sub-assemblies. Sub-contracts must comply with the provisions of the Terms of AMC. Free maintenance services, including preventive maintenance services shall be provided by the Vendor during the period of the said AMC. In all cases, Vendors will be solely responsible for receiving and attending the calls from our branches and offices.

11. The Vendor is responsible for and obliged to conduct all contracted activities in accordance with the contract using state-of-the-art methods and economic principles and exercising all means available to achieve the performance specified in the Contract. The Vendor is obliged to work closely with the Bank's staff, act within its own authority and abide by directives issued by the Bank and implementation activities. The Vendor will abide by the job safety measures prevalent in India and will free the Bank from all demands and/ or responsibilities arising from accidents or loss of life, the cause of which is the performance of the AMC. The Vendor will pay all indemnities arising from such incidents and will not hold the Bank responsible or obliged. The Vendor is responsible for managing the activities of its personnel or sub-contracted personnel and will hold itself responsible for any misdemeanors. The Vendor will treat as confidential all data and information about the Bank, obtained in the execution of his responsibilities, in strict confidence and will not reveal such information to any other party without the prior written approval of the Bank.

12. The AMC may be terminated with a notice of at least one month time by the bank and the AMC amount/ price will be paid pro rata for the period of the existence of the Contract. Further, Bank may, at any time, terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the Vendor if the Vendor becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent and not providing agreed upon maintenance services under the AMC. In this event termination will be without compensation to the Vendor, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the Bank.

13. Notwithstanding the provision of the Terms and Conditions of the Contract, the Vendors shall not be liable for liquidated damages, termination for default to the extent that its delay in performance or other failure to perform their obligations under the Contract is the result of an event beyond the control of the Vendors and not involving the Vendors fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such event may include, but are not restricted to, acts of the Bank in its sovereign capacity, wars or revolutions, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions. In case of these unforeseen events/circumstances, the Vendor shall promptly notify the Bank in writing of such condition and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the Bank in writing, the Vendor shall continue to perform its obligations under the Contract as far as is reasonably practical and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the above mentioned unforeseen events.

14. Each offer should specify only a single solution, which is cost-effective and meets the tender specifications and should not include alternatives. The price quoted must be inclusive of all charges and costs, with taxes mentioned separately thereunder. Bid shall be finalized on the basis of price quoted exclusive of taxes. The accepted price will be valid for one year from the date of award of the Contract (AMC). Bank may at its discretion and as per the need select one or two quotes from the Vendors, say - can accept the 2KVA bid from some Vendor and 3 KVA bid from some other Vendor and/or can accept one make UPS including batteries attached thereto from one Vendor and another make UPS including batteries attached thereto from some other Vendor and/or the bank reserves the right to award the AMC to any single vendor if it finds that overall quoted rates(summarized) for all types of UPSs is low and is economical for the bank. The Bank may, at its discretion, award the Annual Maintenance Contract to the short-listed vendors depending upon the Bid Price, Past Experience, and Reputation of the Vendors. Bank reserves the right to cancel the tender without assigning any reasons whatsoever.

15. The Contract shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Union of India and Bidder shall agree to submit to the courts under whose exclusive jurisdiction the Bank's Kolhapur Zonal office falls. The governing language shall be English.

16. All the signatories representing the Vendors/Bidders shall invariably fulfil KYC norms. They should submit all KYC forms such as Passport size Photograph, Identity Card (PAN Card/Voter Id/ Driving License) and Latest Address Proof.

17. Bidders Quotation/Bid/Proposal should be in conformity with the conditions mentioned herein above. By Proposing and Presenting the Price Quotation/Bid for the Tender for AMC of UPSs and Batteries, the Vendors are agreeing to all the Terms and Conditions of the Contract and to the above mentioned.
